Thorntons Now Hiring Contingent Workers in All Stores

Company offers temporary contingent worker positions to employ displaced workers in local communities

(Louisville, KY – March 20, 2020) – Thorntons stores remain open to serve our guests and provide fuel and other basic needs to Emergency Service Providers, health care workers and other essential business workers. We also recognize many community members are personally and economically impacted by temporary shutdowns and travel restrictions. To help our communities and to continue to serve our guests, Thorntons is hiring part-time temporary contingent workers at all of our locations during this challenging time.

Contingent workers are part-time temporary Team Members who will clean, stock shelves and coolers, maintain store standards, assist with other non-register activities and help to create a safe, clean and friendly environment for on-the-go guests. Part-time temporary schedules are less than 30 hours per week for a defined period of time. Candidates must be 18 years of age or older.

“During these uncertain times, Thorntons is committed to caring for our communities and our people,” said Shelly Gibson, Chief Legal & People Officer. “Our teams are working hard to keep our stores safe and operational and we need extra help to continue to provide great guest service. At the same time, many people in the communities we serve now face unforeseen circumstances and challenges. We are proud to offer these jobs to help displaced workers supplement their incomes and care for their families.”

Anyone interested should visit Thorntons’ website at mythorntons.com/careers to learn more or to apply for one of these positions.
